

End Game

It's possible to be a good person without doing any good, but that's not good for anybody.

Discussion Questions

1. Have you memorized our key text (Proverbs 11:3)?
2. If you think of yourself as a good person, could you prove it based on the good things you do, or would it be based on the bad things you don't do?
3. Which of the following do you relate to?
 - Saving is easier than giving.
 - Discipline is easier than compassion.
 - Being good may be a substitute for doing good.
4. Who do you know that allows their integrity to guide them beyond them? Do they inspire you? If so, how?
5. Where have you resisted allowing integrity to guide you beyond you because it's uncomfortable for you? What do you need to do about it?

The integrity of the upright will guide them, but the crookedness of the treacherous will destroy them.
(Proverbs 11:3, NASB)
